Sir:

1. I am employed by IGT as a Director of Game Design.
2. I am one of the named inventors of the subject matter claimed in the above-identified patent application. I am generally familiar with the subject matter claimed in the above-identified patent application, and I am generally familiar with the inventions disclosed and claimed therein.
3. I read the current claims of the present invention. I believe that the claimed invention was conceived at least as early as December 23, 1998.
4. A redacted IGT Project Report for the commercial embodiment of a game incorporating this invention is attached hereto as Exhibit A. This Project Report is a true and accurate historical report of the development of the commercial embodiment of this game.

5. A redacted description of the development of the commercial embodiment of the claimed invention evidencing conception of the invention at least as early as December 23, 1998 is located on page 1 of the Project Report under Project Level Comments. An entry in the Project Report on December 23, 1998 states, "Please develop a new five line vision slot game called 'Fox 'n' Hound.... The bonus feature will be a chase game between the fox and the hound. Both characters will start on the looping track with the fox getting a head start. They will alternate moving with the fox going first via a reel or some other device to move them a random number of locations along the track. Wherever the fox lands a prize will be added to the win meter. The chase continues until either the fox catches the hound, in which case a bonus will occur; or the hound catches the fox."

6. The claimed invention was reduced to practice at least as early as December 15, 1999, as shown on page 2 of Exhibit A. On that date, a gaming device implementing the commercial embodiment of the claimed invention was submitted to Gaming Control Board in Nevada.
